

POLITICAL PRISONERS' BIRTHDAYS IN APRIL

Send a birthday card for these political prisoners. It's an easy way to help remind these freedom fighters that they aren't forgotten. If you make one, remember--don't use anything like white-out, stickers, tape, or glitter on it. We also recommend that you put your name and address and their name and prisoner number on the card, lest the authorities "lose" the envelope and forget where it is going. If you would like to add a birthday, email us at ppbirthday@riseup.net. Brought to you with love by the Chapel Hill Prison Books Collective.

ROMAINE 'CHIP' FITZGERALD
B-27527 / CSP-CENT
FC-2-110 / Box 921
Imperial, CA 92251
April 11, 1949

Chip was a dedicated Panther, throwing himself into his political work, including the Party's Free Breakfast Program, the tutorial program, selling Panther papers, political education classes and other projects. In 1969 (he was 19) he was convicted and sentenced to death for his participation in a police shoot out. In 1972 California abolished the death penalty and he was resentenced to Life WITH the possibility of parole. But because of his political beliefs he remains in prison while 98% of people on death row in California from 1972 have been released.
